VICTIMS BURNED IN CARS WRECKED

Freight Car Filled with Explosives "Buckled" on Track in Front of an Express on the Pennsylvania Railroad-Both Trains Are Destroyed.

RESCUERS UNABLE TO REACH HELPLESS VICTIMS.

Many of the Bodies Recovered Burned Beyond Identification - New Yorkers Among Those Injured-List of Dead May Be Increased.

(Special to The Evening World.)

HARRISBURG, Pa., May 11.—Twenty-one persons are known to be dead and sixty-eight were badly hurt in a dynamite explosion following a collision between the Cincinnati and Cleveland express on the Pennsylvania Railroad and a freight train at South Harrisburg to-day. Inquiries pouring in from New York and Philadelphia concerning persons known to have been on the train, but who have not reported to the railroad officials here, leads to the belief that the death list will eventually be much

The wreck caught fire immediately after the collision. The flames communicated with a car loaded with tons of dynamite in the freight train. This exploded in a series of detonations.

TRAIN BLOWN TO PIECES.

The first explosion literally blew the passenger train to pieces and tumbled twelve cars of the freight train from the track.

A curious combination of circumstances led to the wreck. In the first (Continued on Second Page.)

BY ALLEN SANGREE. (Special to The Evening World.)
POLO GROUNDS, N. Y., May 11.-Jack Warner was the star attraction here this afternoon, and, coupled with Jack Taylor, formed a battery that looked very good. McGraw sent Matnew-son in, taking no chances, with Bower-man to protect the grandstand.

Mathewson was in superb form and the Cardinals whirled and whirled, but could not even make a foul. Clarke, Shannon and Smoot all being retired on strikes. No RUNS.

Donlin expired on a rep to Capt. Burke, Old Eagle-eyo making a clever catch of a low throw. George Browne, the best bunter in the National League, laid down a clever one that Taylor tipped over. Burke also gathered in McGann's hot one, Browne reaching second. Jack Taylor took care of a bounce from his old friend Mertes. NO RUNS.

Second Inning.

George Browne was in the way of a hot liner from Arndt. Gilbert scooped Beckley's easy joit. Dunleavy was out on a bounce that Matty had to stretch for. NO RUNS.

Dahlern slapped a warm one to Clarke; Deviin got the first deadhead. Gilbert got two bags from a furious drive to the left field fence, scoring Deviin. Bowerman was out on a bounce to Arndt, Gilbert makin gthird, Old Bagle Eye salied out to the right fence for a four from Matty, ONE RUN.

Gilbert cut off Burke by a few inches at first. NO RUNS.

Mertes got a hit that was too not for the short stop to handle. Dahlen was out on a hat one that Taylor stopped and Aradt cleverly fielded to first. Devilin hoisted one to Clarke. Gilbert bounced an easy one to Clarke. NO RUNS.

Touched Up "Pretzel" Hahn for Three Singles and a Double.

Fifth Inning.

Gilbert got Warner's pop. Taylor sliced a single to the right fence. Clarke was safe on Gilbert's fumile. Mathewson nailed Shannon to McGann, the two runners advancing, Matty also attended to Smoot. NO RUNS.

Bowerman filed to Smoot's mit. Warner bicked up Matty's feeble clout. Shannon was under Donlin's high one. NO RUNS.

Sixth Inning. Arndt banged a hard one to Deviin.
Glibert trapped Beckley's low one. Dunleavy reached first n an infield-hit to Glibert. He was immediately out stealing. Bowerman to Dahlen. NO RUNS.

BELMONT PARK RACE TRACK.
May 11.—The weather was close and debilitating at Belmont Park this afternoon. Lowering clouds obscured the sun and just fitted in with the mood of the race goers. As for several days past the card was a weak one.

There was almost a fight in the ring to-day when Wheelock and Heeney, the leaders of the bookmakers association encountered John Cavanaugh, the manager of the ring, and made accusations which almost led Mr. Cavanaugh to forget himself. The interven-
